February 11, 2020

SUMMARY OF ORIGINAL BILL: Clarifies that there is no time within which a judgment or decree of a court of record entered in a domestic relations matter must be acted upon.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (014400): Deletes and rewrites all language after the caption such that the only change is specifying that there is no time within which a judgment or decree of a court of record entered in a domestic relations matter must be acted upon, unless otherwise specifically provided under law.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 20-3-110, a civil judgment or restitution order converted to civil judgment is valid until paid if the judgment is based upon injury or death caused by criminal conduct and the judgment debtor was convicted of a criminal offense for such conduct.
- Specifying that there is no time within which a judgment or decree of a court of record entered in a domestic relations matter must be acted upon, unless otherwise specifically provided under law, will not have a significant impact on the total current or future judgements.
- There will not be a significant fiscal impact on state or local government
